SAVING YOU TIME, MONEY &
FRUSTRATION IS WHAT WE DO BEST!

SOURCING & SOLUTIONS GROUP

Our Mission:

While Master Bolt manufactures a wide selection of hot-headed and machined fasteners, our commitment to making our customers' lives easier far outweighs our in-house capabilities.

Master Bolt's Sourcing & Solutions Group (Master Bolt SSG) allows us to be a full-service provider of fasteners, engineered components, and fabricated parts/assemblies.

Send us your requirements and let us be that extra resource you need!

Additional Benefits of Working With Master Bolt SSG...

➤ Vendor Managed Inventory (VMI) Programs Available

- Purchase in larger quantities to secure lower (quantity-based) pricing.
- Schedule release dates over 12 months from original order to:
 - Free up warehouse space
 - Improve Cash-Flow -- Spread billing over a year (we invoice only when parts ship).

➤ Having inventory in place prevents potential supply chain/stock-out issues.

- Master Bolt will track your usage and advise when re-orders are needed.
- In the event of supply chain issues, Master Bolt can offer in-house manufacturing back-up in many cases.
- We can even provide hybrid sourcing – we bring in blanks from overseas and finish them here to ensure better quality, versatility, price, etc.

➤ Exceptional problem solving – there's a reason we call it the Sourcing & Solutions Group. If something goes wrong with items you purchase through other suppliers, Master Bolt SSG will help you find solutions!

SOURCING & SOLUTIONS GROUP

Master Bolt SSG Can...

- Provide competitive quotations from our extensive network of domestic and overseas manufacturing partners, based on your requirements.
- Evaluate your requirements to determine best practice manufacturing options.
- Make recommendations for engineering changes to allow faster or lower cost options.
- Work within your timelines to provide the best possible solutions.
- SAVE YOU TIME, MONEY, AND FRUSTRATION!

The Master Bolt Difference

SOURCING & SOLUTIONS GROUP

In an era of garbage in – garbage out - computerized customer service, Master Bolt SSG promises to provide the kind of service that you want, need, and deserve.

Our knowledgeable people understand what it takes to be helpful! We maintain relationships within the industry, speaking with people, communicating what is needed, and working with our suppliers and customers to create and implement the best possible solutions.

Our attention to details, and empathetic approach to each opportunity, allows us to understand your requirements, understand your desired solution, and determine the best possible strategic plan to meet, and exceed, your goals.

There is a big difference in providing solutions vs. providing answers! We are Master Bolt's Sourcing & Solutions Group. Let us show you that difference!
