Corpus Christi Academy students are raising monies toward a fund to renovate the bathrooms located off the academy gym. As a first impression of both school and parish activities, this will benefit our entire community. The space is used to facilitate so many parish and school activities such as the Boy Scout Fish Fry, Donut Sundays, Pre Cana, Open House, Festival Casino and many other events. If you would like to make a donation, funds can be placed in an envelope marked CCA Walk-a-Thon and given to the business office, or donations can be made on-line at <https://gofund.me/e21aebd9>. If you would like to have a CCA family get credit for your donation, please indicate the family name and grade with your donation. As always, we appreciate all of the support parishioners from The Church of Saint Clare and Sacred Heart of Jesus give to our school.

Greetings to the entire Corpus Christi Academy community! This week has truly been a welcome back to school week. Almost a month into school, everyone has had their share of moments. Through it all, through all of the tough moments, tough conversations, difficult days, and bewildering weeks, each and every person on the CCA staff has handled the start of the school year in the middle of a pandemic surge with tremendous grace, amazing poise, and saintly strength. We have forged ahead with our plan and our process, and we have exhibited our flexibility as we pivoted towards required masks for students, faculty, and staff while in the building through October. A key part of our plan and our process is the ability to continually evaluate the situations at hand and make changes accordingly.

We have some exciting events on the horizon, including our first Mass, the Walk-a-Thon, visits from the Center for Transformational Leadership through the University of Notre Dame, One School, One Book and accreditation. Please also keep in mind that we will be looking for corporate and local sponsors as we look forward to #WeGiveCatholic, a special day of giving to support Corpus Christi Academy on Tuesday, November 30th. More information will follow in the coming weeks.

Once again, a special thank you to our faculty and staff. Your amazing works, your amazing attitudes, and your amazing personalities are the things that make Corpus Christi Academy special. Thank you all and remember that your JOY, your CARE, your MINDFULNESS, your RESPECTFULNESS, and your THOUGHTFULNESS are evident everyday to our students and through our students!

Sincerely,

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Today's graphic Gospel passage always sounds a bit jarring: "If your hand causes you to sin, cut it off." Upon first reading that passage, our response might be, "What?" But upon further reflection, it strikes me that Jesus is challenging us to attend to what causes us to sin: the vices we have acquired, the temptations we do not ignore, the sinful thoughts and behaviors we entertain or in which we engage. It is also important to identify where we might be culpable in leading others astray. In all of this, Jesus is asking us to be honest with ourselves and to take the necessary steps to "cut" out of our lives the things that lead us away from the Lord, allowing us to move toward him. Lest we get discouraged, we need only remember that we are not alone: We belong to Christ whose word is truth, whose precepts "give joy to the heart," and who tells us "whoever is not against us is for us." Like Moses in the first reading, we can ask that the Spirit descend upon us and give us strength.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Amazing feats we see on TV or read in the news can't help but capture our imagination. Our rich Catholic faith can be a little like that: just take a look at the lives of the saints. That's why I find the other passage in today's Gospel so encouraging. Jesus reminds us that even the smallest things we do matter — actions to help others grow in their faith: "Anyone who gives you a cup of water to drink because you belong to Christ, amen, I say to you, will surely not lose his reward." As the Lord's spirit moves us to be a prophet to others — that is, to perform deeds in his name (mighty or not-so-mighty) — we have the ability to witness the Gospel of Jesus Christ in very real and concrete ways. As St. Teresa of Avila said: "Accustom yourself continually to make many acts of love, for they enkindle and melt the soul."

ACTIONS Prepare for the sacrament of reconciliation by asking Jesus to help you identify what causes you to sin or drives a wedge between you and others or between you and God. Then participate in this beautiful sacrament and pray for the grace to make changes.

A message from Bishop Edward Malesic on October as Respect Life Month

All human life is precious, fragile and given directly to us as a gift by God. As such, we are brothers and sisters in our human family, made in the image and likeness of God. We are all called to live out our responsibility to care for, protect and defend the lives of our brothers and sisters.

Sadly, in our great country we focus so much on our individual freedoms that we sometimes forget about our corresponding obligations to be protective of life, respectful and caring to one another. Jesus reminds us to “Do to others as you would have them do to you.” (Lk 6:27-38)

Consequently, we all have the obligation to defend life because it is the fundamental right from which all other rights flow. St. Pope John Paul II stated, “Above all, the common outcry, which is justly made on behalf of human rights – for example, the right to health, to home, to work, to family, to culture – is false and illusory if the right to life, the most basic and fundamental right and the condition for all other personal rights, is not defended with maximum determination.” (Christifideles laici, No. 38)

In our culture today, disrespect for life in the womb has spilled over to a general disrespect for the needs of others outside the womb. If life can be disregarded at its very beginning, why not be dismissive of it the middle and at the end, too? To be truly pro-life we must also respect life after a person is born. This includes striving to end all racism, protecting the environment that we all share together, lifting up the poor, helping the addicted, comforting those in prison, etc. In short, we are all called to practice the corporal works of mercy.

I am disturbed by images of people shouting at one another on airplanes, the disruptions at public board meetings, shootings in our city streets and the mean-spirited unproductive speech that sometimes comes from people who claim to follow Christ. As we go about our day, do we treat people – all of them – as made in God’s image, even if the image is tainted in them? We should want to help those in our society who are struggling to welcome new life, like moms who are pregnant or parenting in difficult circumstances, and seek healing for those parents who are struggling after the loss of a child, including those who regretfully lost their children through abortion. Instead of tearing people down, we must want to raise them up. This begins by praying for them, but it must not end there. Our love of others must be shown in our actions and in how we treat and value all human life. We seek to convert the minds and hearts of those who disregard life by our example of peaceful and steadfast defense of it.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNICATIONS

I wish we could recover the unity we all felt as a nation after the events of 9/11. And I believe we can. But as people of faith, we must lead the way in love. We may disagree with each other, but the correction we give must be gentle as well as steadfast in faith. We must take on the mind of Christ who did not come to condemn us, but to save us.

Every October, the Catholic Church in the United States celebrates Respect Life Month, and the first Sunday, Oct. 3, is observed as Respect Life Sunday. Let us use the month of October to see one another with the eyes of God, as part of his creation. As we focus on the right to life, let us not be neglectful of our obligation to support life in every stage from beginning to end. We can also use the time to ask for the Lord's forgiveness for our sins against life, both personal and corporate.

Because there are so many invaluable life issues, the diocesan Office for Human Life, in collaboration with the diocesan Social Action Office, will be highlighting different aspects of life each week throughout the month of October in order to help build and celebrate the culture of life. I urge you to click here for resource materials that will help us walk with each other in solidarity in the support and protection of all human life.

Let us pray:

We come to you, our God, the author and sustainer of every human life.

Grant us the courage and wisdom to protect your gift of human life from conception to natural death. Help us to defend our brothers and sisters both born and yet to be born with great love. Make us good stewards of every life.

May we live by the example of your Son, Jesus, who was always close to the weakest of the weak. Guided by your Holy Spirit, strengthen us to defend the most vulnerable among us, especially the unborn. Give us the grace to courageously live the Gospel of life with gentleness and joy. May our faithful witness soften the hearts and minds of those who reject the gift of life in any way. We entrust our prayer to you through Christ, our risen Lord. Amen.
