A MESSAGE FROM FR. KLASINSKI

You are invited to take a 10 to 15 minute Disciple Maker Index Survey which you can access at the bottom of our parish website home page. The survey anonymously asks you to reflect on your own spiritual growth, and the information will help us to better serve our parishioners. This survey is being provided to parishes free of charge by the diocese. The survey is available online until April 19. Thank you for contributing to our parish profile.

Children Waiting Everywhere

In response to what the faith sharing groups of Saint Clare and Saint Paschal Baylon Parishes have learned in the past year from studying about Pope Francis' Encyclical Laudato Si', the groups are collecting money for an organization called: Children Waiting Everywhere. This organization is blessing children in need across the world with traditional education as well as teaching them about Christianity. They serve one community, one family, and one child at a time, contributing to projects in microeconomics, education, and health. CWE makes sure that one hundred percent of donations go straight to the cause. You can learn more at www.childrenwaitingeverywhere.org. To contribute, please make checks out to Children Waiting Everywhere and turn them in to the business office by Earth Day, April 22.

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

As we approach the most sacred time in the life of the Church and prepare to celebrate another Easter Season together, I want to acknowledge the challenges, difficulties and blessings we have experienced during the past year of the pandemic. One year ago, who would have guessed all that we would have experienced due to the COVID-19 pandemic. We never would have imagined that over 500,000 people would lose their lives from the virus, some of them our friends, relatives, and fellow parishioners. We never would have thought that the obligation to attend Holy Mass on Sundays would be suspended, publicly celebrated Masses would be cancelled for several months, and we would have experienced isolation, confinement, the wearing of masks and social distancing for over a year. Added to this we also experienced deep political division, racial tension, riots in our streets and in our nation's capital, and a general unrest in our hearts. But now we must slowly begin to pull ourselves together and move forward with the faith, generosity and charity that is expected from all who claim to be disciples of Jesus Christ.

I want to acknowledge and express my gratitude to so many of you who have cooperated with your local pastors and church leaders by going above and beyond the call of duty through your generosity to Catholic Charities and supporting the work of the church. Thank you for continuing to live your faith by participating in corporal works of mercy, continuing your prayer life, and taking opportunities to deepen your spiritual life through in-person or streamed celebrations of Holy Mass and other devotions done in the silence of your homes.

Thank you for helping to keep the Church alive and well despite all the hectic and unexpected roadblocks along the way. We all need to thank so many of our priests, deacons, pastoral ministers and parish staffs for their creativity, courage, great patience and dedication to us during the past year. They did an outstanding job moving ahead with all of the unknowns and changing instructions, making adjustments, implementing new directives, struggling to determine how to reach out and minister to parishioners in the various parishes throughout the diocese. Our clergy, pastoral ministers, catechists, administrators, parishioners, young and old responded in heroic and selfless ways to ensure that the proclamation of the Gospel never stopped and the Sacraments continued to be celebrated either in-person or able to be viewed by way of online streaming, although the later was not ideal. I am also so proud of our Catholic schools that were ready to go online the day after in-person classes were cancelled and then returned to in-class instruction last fall. Our school teachers are heroes to many of our children in our Catholic schools.

All of us were stretched beyond imagination and frustrated by the limitations of the past year. It was also difficult for me to come as your new bishop mid-pandemic. Through it all, however, God certainly did provide. God gave us what we needed, especially in the most difficult times. God remains a steadfast help in times of need. The cross of the past year, if we permitted it, made us people of deeper faith, closer as families, and more appreciative of parish life.

But we are not quite done yet. Even though we are beginning to get this pandemic under control, the virus still remains, and we all need to remain vigilant until that time when masks are no longer necessary and appropriate social distancing is no longer expected. The health and safety of everyone, especially those whose health is compromised in any way, is of extreme importance and these ordinary means of protecting life have proven to be helpful. Remember that patience is like all the virtues. It comes with practice. And, if these limitations and temporary requirements were a great burden to us, they were also the sufferings that we are able to endure and offer up for the salvation of souls, our own included.

Although the dispensation from the Sunday Mass remains in effect at the present time, we are never exempted from keeping the Lord's Day holy. Continue to make Sunday a day of prayer, rest, and family. We will continue to offer live streaming at the diocesan website www.dioceseofcleveland.org and, if available, on your local parish website. However, as we begin to get outside of our homes, visit restaurants and attend sporting events, it will also become the time for us to return to the altar at our parish churches where we can receive the Body and Blood of Christ for ourselves as the true food of eternal life. For Jesus has said to us, "Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life and I will raise him on the last day" (John 6:54).

Yes, there is hope on the horizon. As more and more people become immune to COVID-19, our churches, schools, parish events and diocesan events will eventually return to normal. I hope that we return to better than normal. I ask you to pray for that.

As your bishop, I thank you, the faithful, for your cooperation in this difficult and confusing time. I look forward to the days and months ahead trusting that we all may be one in our commitment to remain faithful to the Lord and supportive of each other.

It is good to be the Bishop of Cleveland. I am blessed to be among you at this time of grace for all of us.

God bless you and those you love.

Your brother in Christ,

Most Reverend Edward C. Malesic, JCL
Bishop of Cleveland

Benedictine, Carmelites, Dominicans, Jesuits, Franciscans... and this barely skims the surface of the religious orders. We've heard the names, but if someone asked you to explain who they are or what the difference is, could you answer? Well, we've asked Bishop Gries to help us unravel what the religious orders are and why there are so many different orders. Join us for this enlightening evening with Bishop Gries. A huge Thank-You to all of the parishioners at the Church of Saint Clare who participated in Catholic Charities' Million Dollar Match opportunity!

The Million Dollar Match Campaign was a success with over $1.4M raised in less than one month! This outstanding response is nothing short of inspiring and will help thousands of individuals and families seeking help and hope from Catholic Charities programs and services.

If you have not yet made a gift to the Annual Appeal, please visit CatholicCommunity.org/Donate or text CCHOPE to 41444. Every dollar counts towards our parish goal, and we are so grateful for all who faithfully support the works of Catholic Charities in Northeast Ohio.

Hello, once again, to all of our families and friends of Corpus Christi Academy. As we celebrate and reflect upon the Feast of Divine Mercy today, we pray to God to continue to give us clarity and faith when our lives' are filled with confusion. At Corpus Christi Academy, we have just completed two of our fully remote days to continue to ensure our plan and our process. As the COVID-19 numbers continue to spike, please understand the importance of continuing to be mindful, thoughtful, careful, and respectful of others. Washing our hands, wearing our masks, and staying appropriately distanced are just a few of the ways that we can continue to do our part for our students, teachers, staff, families, and community. We are truly excited to return to school on Monday renewed, refreshed, and rejuvenated to finish the 2020-21 school year strong. We hope that the Easter season continues to provide all of us with the hope for renewal and a fresh start. Please stay safe, stay healthy, and be well!

Sunday of Divine Mercy

Acts 4:32-35 | 1 Jn 5:1-6 | Jn 20:19-31

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Do you ever have times – at the dinner table or at a gathering of friends – where all seems right with the world? I often hold my breath, conscious of the fragility of those moments, fearful that saying something might jinx things. It's a little like rooting for a pitcher cruising into the bottom of the ninth with a no-hitter – that feeling that we are on the verge of perfection. Well, as Christians, we are on that verge, although perfection will not come in this life but the next. And so, as fleeting as these human moments feel, and can actually be, we are reminded in today's psalm: "Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting ... Let those who fear the Lord say, 'His mercy endures forever.'" As we celebrate this Divine Mercy Sunday, and enter the second week of Easter, let us give thanks for the gift of God's great mercy, and pray for the grace to be as loving and merciful to others.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

I'm taken by the story of doubting Thomas. For a long time I've focused on the "doubting" part of his name, the fact that he demanded to place his fingers in the nail marks and his hand in Jesus' side. However, when Jesus addresses Thomas, Thomas' response is immediate and unqualified: "My Lord and my God!" Thomas has recognized the divine nature of Jesus; he sees him not just as the man he has followed, but as God. As Catholics, we may sometimes face questions about how the Church has come to believe and teach certain things. Thomas' ultimate affirmation encourages us to be steadfast in our faith, and to be patient with any of our own and others' questions. That is because Christ will come to meet us where we are. As the Incarnation of God's divine mercy, Jesus Christ is the one who hears our doubts and insecurities, and he answers them: "Here I am. Look at me. Touch me. Feel my presence." Thomas was not afraid, and we need not fear either. God's mercy is upon us, "and the victory that conquers the world is our faith." Let us witness to our faith as Thomas did to his.

PRAY Today is Divine Mercy Sunday, a day when we are reminded of God's immense love and mercy for us. Learn more about this day and how to recite the Divine Mercy Chaplet: usccb.org/prolife/divine-mercy-sunday.
